

THE CLAY BIRDS' CAROL

We are two birds,
once we were clay.
then Jesus made us
and we flew away.

With his hands he took these wings
out of the clay,
then he asked us to sing
and we heard him say.

'If you would fly
be not of earth,
just look up at the sky
for spirit comes first.'

So we opened our eyes
and saw a great light,
winged up to the sky
and flew out of sight.

Into a wood
singing we flew,
and all of the birds said:
'He made us too.'

'Holy are we,
Holy are you,
and Everything Living
is Holy too.'
