

THE DOLPHINS' CAROL

We are the dolphins who fly through the seas, leaping and soaring and twisting and falling and plunging so deep we are gone.

We are the dolphins who dive through the waves, skimming and gliding and swaying and sliding and suddenly speeding away.

We are the dolphins who race through the spray friends to each other we know what we say,
we're friends to the humans, we teach them to play.

We are the dolphins who dance around your boat, spinning and circling,
first this side then that side and over and under, above and below you - smiling, beguiling -
as, laughing, you beg us to stay.

We were made this way!

Praise to us Dolphins Praise to the fish great and small
To all that surrounds us,
The Lord God made us all.

Hallelujah
Hallelujah
